

THE FIFTH COLUMN

CONTENTS

Editorial		4
Yesterday's Tomorrows	by Jeanne Wolfe	6
Lightning Strikes - Not Once But Twice	by Georges Bulette	12
The Charter Of Machu Picchu	by Silvia Sterental	16
The Main	by Pieter Sijpkes	18
Counterproject	by William Mark Pimlott	23
Monemvasia Revisited	by Norbert Schoenauer	27
Urbino	par Miguel Escobar et Francine Peloquin	34
Rubens As Architect	by Thomas Glen	36
Profile Of A Practice	by Marianne McKenna	42
Making Plans		47
Archives		48

Editorial Board:

Georges Bulette.
Nathan Godlovitch.
Orest Humennyj.
Stefan Wisniowski.

Graphics Editor:

Graham D. Livesey.

Photography Editor:

Tony Zinno.

Production Editor:

Jeff Telgarsky.

Distribution Manager:

Baila Lazarus.

Business Manager:

David de Santis.

Consultant: Pieter Sijpkes.

Staff:

Graphics and Production: Ron Bijok, Charles-Henri Brunet, Patty Chang, Hal Ingberg, Shari Lapidus, Helen Malkin, William Mark Pimlott, Mark Poddubiuk, Eric Schellenberger, Marguerite Tielens, Claudio Venier.

Photography: Louis Theriault.

Making Plans section compiled by Helen Malkin and Stefan Wisniowski.

Cover design by Eugenio Carelli.

Our special thanks go to Ulla Manley and John Roston, whose assistance was invaluable to the production of this issue.

THE FIFTH COLUMN (ISSN 0229-7094) is a quarterly architectural magazine published jointly by the Architectural Undergraduate Society of McGill University and the Student Chapters of the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada. Editorial offices are located at 3480 University Street, Montreal, Quebec H3A 2A7. Opinions expressed are those of the authors.

Legal Deposit: Bibliothèque nationale du Québec, National Library of Canada.

Computer typeset by the McGill University SCRIPT facility.

Printed in Montreal by the McGill University Printing Service.